

FIRST YEAR EXPERIENCE (FYE) PROGRAMME OUTCOMES
THE UNIVERSITY OF THE WEST INDIES, MONA
2020/21

OUTCOMES

Support Students Mental, Physical, Emotional, Spiritual Wellbeing

- As a result of FYE students will
 - Receive support for mental wellness
 - Receive support for emotional wellness
 - Receive support for spiritual wellness
 - Be encouraged to keep physically well

Foster academic and personal success

- As a result of FYE students will
 - Adapt and apply appropriate academic strategies to their courses and learning experiences
 - Identify and apply strategies to effectively manage time and priorities
 - Identify relevant academic policies, processes, and resources related to their academic success and timely attainment of degree requirements
 - Identify positive increases in their self-confidence, self-efficacy and their ability to succeed
 - Initiate a process toward the attainment of personal and professional goals and articulate potential pathways to employability

Discover and connect with the University of the West Indies, Mona

- As a result of FYE students will
 - Identify and use appropriate campus resources and engage in opportunities that contribute to their learning within and beyond the classroom (virtual in some cases)
 - Develop positive relationships with peers, staff, and faculty
 - Articulate the history of the UWI, its mission and traditions such as commemoration and University song

Promote personal development, well-being and social responsibility

- As a result of FYE students will
 - Clarify their values and identity and articulate how these shape their perspectives and relationships with themselves and people who are similar to and different from themselves
 - Examine and develop strategies that promote wellbeing (including financial) and explain how wellness impacts their academic and personal success.
 - Identify responsible ways of using social media and the internet

- Articulate the responsibility they have to give back to society through service despite being home (outreach, civic engagement)